

Appalachian Backroads & Windy 9

A 17-day motorcycle loop from Massachusetts through the Catskills, Pennsylvania, Shenandoah and the Blue Ridge, the twisting roads of southwest Virginia, West Virginia's Midland Trail and Ohio's Windy 9, then back across Pennsylvania, New York and Vermont to New Hampshire. About 3,687 miles.

Best time to go

- Best: mid-September to mid-October. Cool, dry riding weather and fall colour, peaking in Vermont and New Hampshire around early October and along the Blue Ridge in mid to late October.
- Good: late May to June. Mild temperatures and rhododendron and mountain laurel in bloom along the Skyline Drive and the Blue Ridge Parkway.
- Hardest: July and August. Hot and humid in Virginia, West Virginia and Ohio, with afternoon thunderstorms most days.
- Note: peak-foliage weekends bring heavy traffic on the Skyline Drive and Blue Ridge Parkway; ride those sections midweek.
